

Ellen Hesen

Ellen Hesen, of Louisville, is general counsel for Governor Steve Beshear and the Beshear administration. She has practiced law for 20 years. Most recently, Hesen has served as General Counsel for the State Auditor's Office. She began her career with the Jefferson County Attorney's Office, was an associate at the former firm of Barnett & Alagia, and was a partner at Woodward, Hobson & Fulton, before coming to state government. During the past eight years, Hesen served as General Counsel to the Cabinet for Health Services, Interim Commissioner for the Department for Medicaid Services, and Deputy Secretary of the Cabinet for Health Services.